Statement of Work: UKRAINE PHONE POLL

OBJECTIVES OF THE RESEARCH

Public opinion data shall be obtained through a series of two CATI surveys that are representative of Ukraine's 24 regional centers and are designed to obtain the most accurate possible information about: (a) Ukrainian voters' opinions of electoral campaigns in their communities; (b) issues driving voter preferences; and (c) voters' trust in local authorities' ability to responsibly conduct elections.

RESEARCH TASKS

(1) General Responsibilities of Bidder. The bidder shall be responsible for the project design and execution of two surveys, including the following specific tasks:

- (a) translation, formatting, pretesting, adaptation, and programming of questionnaire;
- (b) development of a sampling methodology;
- (c) training supervisors and interviewers;
- (d) arranging and supervising all aspects of fieldwork, including back-checks;
- (e) processing the survey data, including data cleaning and encoding survey responses;
- (f) ascertaining the representativeness of the sample and weighting the data, if necessary;
- (g) Statistical analysis of findings and producing the deliverables specified below.

The following will need to be completed before fieldwork on the first poll:

(2) Questionnaire. IRI will provide a draft questionnaire and the bidder will provide input, such as a need for rephrasing certain terms for local context. The questionnaire will be at least 70% identical across all 24 cities, with only certain names, e.g. the mayor's having to be localized to each city. In 24 cities, there may be up to 3 additional questions.

IRI requests translation into Ukrainian. Translations will be reviewed and approved by IRI.

The estimated average interview duration is 15 minutes.

3) Sample Design. For each survey, IRI requires a sample of 14,400 adults, age 18 or older and eligible to vote, with 600 respondents in 24 Ukrainian cities, including 22 oblasts centers plus Kramatorsk and Sievierodonetsk. Planned exclusions of the population of the survey universe (e.g. geographic, linguistic, without access to phones etc.) must be discussed during quotation stage.

The sample shall be drawn using recognized probability methods, all the way down to the selection of the individual respondent. In the event that any departure from probability sampling methods is recommended by the bidder for all or any part of the survey, the sampling methodologies to be employed shall be described in detail and a rationale for their use shall be provided.

IRI's preferred approach to CATI sampling list-based, provided that recent sampling frame data exists in form of listings of all phone numbers (landline and mobile, incl. of all major mobile phone service providers.) Alternatively, IRI accepts an RDD approach, ideally with some stratification, e.g. by area code.

A detailed sampling methodology shall be submitted to the IRI prior to fieldwork, including a description of the survey coverage, allocation of the sample, description of the sampling frame, description of any stratification criteria to be used, description of the stages of selection and the selections methods to be used at each stage, the method to be used for selection of the respondent in case of shared phone numbers, and call-back rules to be employed. It is assumed that the sample will be distributed in proportion to the population of each region or other geographic unit to be surveyed; in the event that the bidder wishes to propose a sample design departing from this principle the proposal should describe the allocation to be used and the reasons for doing so.

(4) Pre-test. The questionnaire shall be pre-tested once by the bidder prior to the commencement of fieldwork of the first poll. No less than 20 pre-test interviews shall be conducted and in surveys with translations into multiple language, no less than 10 interviews per language. The bidder shall provide IRI with a written report of the results of the pre-test, along with details of any problems encountered and suggested remedies, prior to the commencement of any fieldwork.

The following services will be performed for each of the two polls:

(5) Fieldwork. Interviews shall be conducted by experienced field workers who shall be thoroughly briefed by bidder prior to commencement of any fieldwork. IRI may send a representative to observe training and/or listen to some interviews. The bidder shall ensure that interviewers are thoroughly familiar with respondent selection procedures, call back procedures, and the structure of the questionnaire. Interviewer training shall include practice sessions in administering the questionnaire. All interviewers must have at least completed secondary education and must be fully fluent (reading and speaking) in the language(s) in which they are to administer the interviews. A minimum of 10% of interviews shall be back checked or accompanied by a team supervisor.

The bidder will need to track contacts (and reasons for unsuccessful interview attempts) to calculate the response rate. During the quotation process, the bidder will disclose the anticipated response rate. Should this anticipated response rate be less than 50%, the bidder will list in the proposal additional steps that will be taken to boost response rates, e.g. additional call-backs, opening the call-center during additional hours, etc. Informed consent (oral is acceptable unless country laws require written) must be sought prior to commencing the interview. IRI will provide draft informed consent language to the bidder and this template may be updated by the bidder to conform with the country's legal requirements.

(6) Data Processing. The bidder shall be responsible for data cleaning, and processing, including development and implementation of a coding scheme for all open-ended questions. The bidder shall supply data to IRI as a clean, fully labeled in English and Ukrainian SPSS "*.sav" files with a complete data dictionary of variable names and value labels. There shall be one data record for each respondent and records shall be of fixed length. Each record shall include a unique respondent ID number, interviewer ID number, interview duration, any geographic units as per the sample design, and date of interview. Each record shall include demographic information about the respondent, including gender, exact age, and education level.

The bidder shall be responsible for deriving and applying any post-stratification weights required to bring the sample into conformity with the demographic profile of the population at the very least for gender and age groups, as well as any additional weighting factors required to correct for disproportionate allocation, if used. Ideally, IRI would want education groups included in weights, and if available demographic data allows it, those without formal education will be assigned to a separately code from those with a least some primary education. If demographic weights were to exceed a factor 1:8, this must be discussed in writing with IRI before the weight is applied. IRI has strict upper limits on post-weighting and requires unweighted samples already generally matching the population's rough gender and age distribution. For example, an unweighted sample of 65% male and 35% female would not be accepted, even if corrected with post-weights.

(7) Technical Report. When delivering data, the bidder shall provide a Technical Report which shall include the following:

- (a) A complete sampling methodology.
- (b) Details of response rates, including tabulation of unsuccessful interview attempts, with reasons for non-response (i.e. respondent refusal, proxy refusal, inability to locate selected respondent, etc.).
- (c) A brief report on survey operations including any practical difficulties encountered in carrying out the survey;
- (d) Estimated sampling error;
- (e) A complete explanation of the weighting scheme including details of how weighting factors were developed and applied, as well as the demographic data on which weights were based (i.e., age, gender, and education distributions in the population);
- (f) any abnormalities encountered during data QC, including but not limited to: suspicious patterns by interviewer ID (e.g. usually fast completion rates), potential contradictions (e.g. respondents who rate a certain politician as highly untrustworthy yet definitely plan on voting for this person), significant data changes of indicators since the previous poll etc.

(8) PowerPoint Presentation. The bidder will provide two presentations (one for each poll) with a chart for every survey question. A template (already completed with historic data for trend charts if applicable) will be provided by IRI.

(9) Summary of deliverables. The Deliverables to be provided to IRI by the bidder are as follows:

- (a) Sampling Methodology for both polls
- (b) Pretest report before the first poll
- (c) Copies of the final questionnaires, as fielded, in English and translations into Ukrainian
- (d) Two complete data sets formatted as SPSS file
- (e) Two technical reports
- (f) Two PowerPoint Presentations

(10) Delivery Schedule. Bidder will advise IRI on a feasible timeline for completing work on this project as soon as possible, with deliverables d and c listed in Section 9 above to be submitted no later than 2 weeks after the conclusion of fieldwork, and deliverable f submitted no later than 10 days after IRI's acceptance of deliverables d and e.

(11) Proposals must contain:

- List CATI surveys with similar specifications previously conducted in this country
- Explain if planning on using subcontractors for any tasks
- Is bidder able to comply with all requirements listed on the SOW without alterations? If any proposed alterations, explain.
- Coverage, if not 100% of non-institutionalized adults aged 18+ (Describe if any adults cannot be covered used your sampling approach):

Evaluation and Award Process

1. IRI may contact any Bidder for clarification or additional information, but Bidders are advised that IRI intends to evaluate the offers based on the written proposals, without discussions, and reserves the right to make decisions based solely on the information provided with the initial proposals. IRI may but is not obligated to conduct additional negotiations with the most highly rated Bidders prior to award of a contract, and may at its sole discretion elect to issue contracts to one or more Bidders.
2. Mathematical errors will be corrected in the following manner: If a discrepancy exists between the total price proposed and the total price resulting from multiplying the unit price by the corresponding amounts, then the unit price will prevail and the total price will be corrected. If there is a discrepancy between the numbers written out in words and the amounts in numbers, then the amount expressed in words will prevail. If the Bidder does not accept the correction, the offer will be rejected.
3. IRI may determine that a proposal is unacceptable if the prices proposed are materially unbalanced between line items or sub-line items. Unbalanced pricing exists when, despite an acceptable total evaluated price, the price of one or more contract line items is significantly overstated or understated as indicated by the application of cost or price analysis techniques. A proposal may be rejected if IRI determines that the lack of balance poses an unacceptable risk.

4. IRI will conduct a source selection based as follows:

IRI intends to make an award to the responsible Bidder based on the following evaluation factors:

- a) Technical evaluation, (including technical capabilities, proposed technical approach, and personnel qualifications) – 30 percent
 - Technical capacity to conduct 14,400 interviews in a reasonable period of time (15 percent)
 - English, Ukrainian, and Russian language skills (15percent)
- b) Past performance and experience in performing similar projects – 40 percent
 - Relevant experience in politically focused or relevant survey research in Ukraine and/or the Eurasia region as demonstrated by CV and/or list of past projects (40 percent)
- c) Price – 30 percent

IRI intends to evaluate Bidders' proposals in accordance with these factors and make an award to the responsible Bidder whose proposal is most advantageous to the program.

5. If a cost realism analysis is performed, cost realism may be considered in evaluating performance or price.
